

Press Kit and One-Sheet

EMS Leadership Podcast from The Public Safety Consulting Group

The EMS Leadership Podcast is a video and audio series from The Public Safety Consulting Group (PSCG). Each episode is a candid conversation with the people who run EMS systems, 911 centers and public safety agencies, focused on what works in the field. Listeners and guests range from chiefs, supervisors and 911 managers to the aspiring leaders of tomorrow: field providers, FTOs, Explorers and union leaders. You do not need a title to lead.

Mission: To sustain the leaders of today while preparing and supporting the leaders of tomorrow.

Format: video and audio, recorded in the PSCG studio in Shelton, Connecticut
Status: launching early 2027
Where: thepscgroup.net/podcasts, YouTube, and major podcast apps at launch

Host

Michael A. Loiz is a paramedic and EMS executive with more than 32 years of experience in emergency medical services, public safety education, emergency management and dispatch operations. He founded PSCG in 2005 and was named an NAEMT EMS Advocate of the Year for 2024. He serves as NAEMT Connecticut Advocacy Coordinator, Chair of the Legislative Committee of the Connecticut EMS Advisory Board (since 2017) and Senior Vice President of the Southwest Region 1 EMS Council.

What we cover

Topic	Examples
Leadership acumen (main driver)	Leadership skills, philosophy, practice and technology; decision-making, culture and developing people at every rank
Operations and deployment	Response times, unit-hour utilization, system status planning
Clinical quality	CQI programs, protocols, medical direction, measurable standards
Dispatch and 911	EMD, communications center accreditation, CAD workflows
Workforce	Recruitment, retention, FTO and supervisor development, culture
Finance and sustainability	Billing, budgets, long-term EMS funding
Advocacy and policy	Legislation, regulation, representing EMS at the table

Connect

Guests, ideas and press	info@thepscgroup.net (subject “Podcast Idea”) · (203) 343-0433
Sponsor the show	https://thepscgroup.net/podcasts/sponsor-inquiry/